

Light of the world!

He has come and He has freed us forever!
We love celebrating Christmas and all the Advent festiveness with lights everywhere.
Our eyes are always drawn to the different displays of light and we reflect that all of this is because He came!

We have been busy hosting or facilitating three retreats for missionaries in the last two months, celebrating two Thanksgivings and walking with each one of our adopted loved ones as they weather highs and lows of missionary life. We are blessed and so grateful for another year of being able to pour out His light, His hope and standing in the gap as storms hit. Thank you, for praying and standing in the gap for us! We could not do this without your prayers and support.

We will be together as a family at Christmas, plus our extended adopted family that stays in town for their break. We are praising God for all of you and pray that you are comforted by His light and the beauty of Christmas as He has comforted us so well. May you be blessed with hope, joy and rest as you see His light in someone's eyes and in all the sparkle and light around you.

Merry Christmas from our family to yours!

Update on Megan's Brazil Mission

The team will be serving in central and northern Brazil from late December to early March. They will be working with local children, leading bible studies with young women and going into a prison to share Gods love with female inmates. Pray for protection and courage for this beautiful team of 10 women.

Most of Megan's funds have been raised and she only has $450 left to raise of her total goal! We praise God and are trusting him to provide the rest.

Thank you!!!

Praises & Prayers you can join us in:

Praise

- Strength and joy for our full house and plate!
- Megan has raised almost all of her needed funds for her mission outreach to Brazil.

Thank you, for praying!

- We have seen breakthrough happen in individuals these past few months and are excited for what God is doing!

Pray

- Rest pockets, so we can recharge more efficiently from the busy days. Christmas Break means busy days for us as most of the missionaries that are here have more time than usual and seek us out for debriefing, care and prayer.
- Health and strength for Megan as she leaves late December. She has had several colds during her Discipleship Training and feels worn out physically.
- Pray for Hannah as she battles homesickness and a more demanding 2nd year of University.

- Meaningful and refreshing times with missionaries and leaders we get to spend extra time with during Christmas break.

With love and gratitude!
David and Anna
