Dear Friends,

Greetings to you all.

As I wrote to some of you before, yesterday was the wedding of Joseph, the son of my cousin. He has been staying with us as one of my sons. Many relatives came to our house from places as far away as Uganda. Even those living in Juba gathered at our house

Life in Africa is interesting and full of joy. You cannot say "no room" to a relative. How can over 40 people stay in a 5-roomed house? But here we were with all these relatives singing and rejoicing. Every space in the house became a sleeping place. Even outside people spread mats and rolled up in their blankets for the chilly night.

We went to church for the wedding ceremony and after that the reception at the same place. It went on until 9:00 PM. It was colorful. I am sending to you some of the pictures.

Nikolai
