On the Road Again (after 34 months...)

Happy Thanksgiving! As everyone shared this week about what they were doing on Thursday for Thanksgiving, I had the unusual plan of spending Thanksgiving at MSP Airport and a Delta/KLM aircraft.

I've felt a bit out of practice as I've prepared for this trip. I covet your prayers over the next two weeks as I step out once again into this great big world. Here are the basic travel details.

Thursday, November 24 - Depart 4:15 PM - MSP to Paris

Wednesday and Thursday - rest and connect up with team from River Valley Church

Friday, December 1 through December 8 - Turkey Experience tour with team from River Valley Church to learn and visit the sites of the churches in the book of Revelation.

Thursday, December 8 - Depart 10:35 PM - Istanbul to Paris (7:35 AM local Friday)

Friday, December 9 -

- Arrive 2:20 AM in Paris, France (9:20 AM local)
- Depart 7:40 AM - Paris to Detroit (2:40 PM local)
- Arrive 4:45 PM in Detroit (5:45 PM local)
- Depart 6:45 PM - Detroit to Minneapolis (7:45 PM local)
- Arrive 8:49 PM in Minneapolis

Specific requests:

- Safe and peaceful travels and good connections. A quick adjustment to jet lag and changing time zones. Good health and sleep at night.
- Favor and mercy with the ticket agents (especially related to luggage weight and additional baggage charges;)
- No rain - right now the forecast shows rain about every day I'm gone.
- Good relationships and connections with people - this a very relational trip and I don't know any of the people I'm visiting very well.

- A holy ease over every element of this trip.

I'm excited for this opportunity to travel once again, but I'm a little anxious. My heart is to fully present, to trust God each day, and to be a clean vessel through whom God's love can flow. My simple prayer is to follow God's lead and to love people well.

Happy Thanksgiving and thank you so very much for your prayers!

Love and Blessings, Jill
