FLOODING IN KENYA EMERGENCY APPEAL

Friends, this is an urgent appeal,

We need your prayers and urgent support.

Kenya is currently grappling with devastating floods, which have been occurring over the past few months. Several people have been killed across the country and hundreds of families including women and their young children displaced from their homes, because of killer rains and raging floods.

Below are photos of a village in Homa Bay County, Kenya, submerged in water with properties destroyed. This is one of the areas where IFAGE is currently reaching out to women, teenage girls, and youth through the Women's Health and Safety Program. This program empowers women and youth with knowledge on Sexual and Reproductive Health (SRH) issues, enabling them to make healthy SRH choices, reduce cases of teenage pregnancies, prevent new HIV infections among youth, and address early marriages and Sexual and Gender-Based Violence (SGBV).

This is where we need your urgent help. We have identified 130 highly vulnerable women-headed families that are currently living in a nearby school because their houses and all their belongings have been swept away by the raging waters.

With $250, you can support one family with food and basic needs to live for one month. Even your donation of $50 will support this family for a week.

Please Donate Now and support these women and their children.
