“To the weak I became weak, that I might gain the weak; I have become all things to all people, so that I may by all means save some. I do all things for the sake of the gospel, so that I may become a fellow partaker of it.”

1 Corinthians 9: 22-23

Srey Naeth and Seomie are grade 10 students. Both of them are studying English and Computer classes with me. They are not believers yet, but we are praying for both of them to become Jesus’ followers. Srey Naeth asked me what decided me to followe Jesus; and why I am in Anlong Veng, a countryside when I have the option to stay in Battambang where it is a city and more convenient. These are not new questions from my students, yet this instance presented me another opportunity to share the Gospel to Srey Naeth and Seomie.

Glory to God alone!

 ~ Hudson Taylor

Here are some daily and common encounters we have and I reckon you have encountered in the same way already which needed Biblical understanding and discerning answers...

Voleak: “A chief monks came to our house, poured a pungent water on my head. I was silently praying that God please don’t get angry with me. I don’t know what to do next time.”

Seoyung: “Why I still have the fear of ghost, teacher?” “What decided you to believe and follow Jesus, teacher?” “I am still hoping my mom will one day believe in Jesus, too, like I do.”

Hongsim: “I fear that one day when I get married, when both of my parents and grandparents would ask me to pay respect to the monks.”

Pin: “What should I do, teacher, my dad won’t allow me to come to church and join the fellowship except to study English with you, teacher?”

Noech: “What should I do, teacher when my parents would only allow me to go to the church for one hour?”
