

Onward to the next season of life and ministry

Daryl and I are deeply thankful to the Lord for allowing us to serve our alma mater Baptist Theological College, Inc. (BTC) and Cebu Graduate School of Theology (CGST) for 14 years (2 cycles of 7). We had tons of opportunities to grow as a disciple of Christ and to help others grow in their discipleship both in formal and informal settings. This is so far the most fruitful season of life and ministry for us.

The Lord gave us a wonderful privilege to be part of BTC/CGST's ministry. And we have seen firsthand how this bible college and seminary has remained faithful to her mandate of equipping men and women so that they will serve God wherever He may lead them, whether locally or cross-culturally.

We are also grateful to all of our colleagues who genuinely love the Lord, love His Church, and love the lost. Their commitment and passion to equip others with humility and grace are truly inspiring and worth emulating. We enjoyed serving alongside you. And your lives have made a great impact to us in so many ways.

Today (7/31/24) is my (Boyett) last day as a full-time faculty member, vice president of BTC and academic dean of CGST. It's a bittersweet moment for us. We will definitely MISS everyone. But the Lord's purposes will prevail in our lives.

As our family moves to the next season of life and ministry, we are confident that the Lord will continue to bless BTC/CGST, all members of the board, the leadership team, faculty and staff, and all the students under their loving care. God's Spirit will continue to empower you all as you equip God's people and entrust to them God's Word so that they too will teach God's Word to others.

We also covet the prayer support of the BTC/CGST family as we help in the gospel work in Thailand starting this year.
