Hello Friends of C4DMU!

I am a representative of the stateside team of Collaborate 4 Development Mission: Uganda (C4DMU). You are receiving this email because you or your organization has supported our friend James Akuwa in his significant work in rural Uganda. We are in the process of creating a mailing list and making an effort to keep supporters updated as to the work being done and the needs that continue to be addressed in this vital ministry to the poorest areas of Eastern Uganda.

Last fall, funds were secured through friends like you to finally bring clean, fresh water to the two communities where James serves: Kamuli and Mukono. Last February, our board chair, Lori Cavendar, was able to travel to Uganda and spend two weeks with James seeing first hand the needs and conditions. Since that time, we have added a child sponsorship opportunity and many of you have chosen to support a specific child attending the Mt Olivet Care View School in Kamuli. Thank you, donors, for your support of these significant projects!

Since then, a special project was created to secure funds to put roof sheeting on classrooms at the Mt Olivet school. These funds were sent to James just this week and we look forward to seeing the completion of these temporary shelters serving the 160 students at the school.

Attached is a more complete report along with pictures from Pastor James. Please take a few minutes to read this report and hear about another exciting opportunity to build permanent school buildings on land that has already been secured. This is an ambitious project that will cost approximately $85,000 US dollars. We hope you will consider partnering with C4DMU and spreading the word to others who would love to see these beautiful children able to learn and grow in dry, clean buildings that better meet the needs of this community.

All giving can be done easily and securely through our page on the Global Horizons website. We are so grateful for our partnership with GHI and all the support they provide to our team. Thank you again for your prayers, your support, and your continued interest in this great ministry!

Blessing,
Terri Hansen
