Dear friends,

Come and see what the Lord has done! (Ps.66:5).

This sentence is really true to the graduates of Uganda Christian University this past Friday; they have been learning for the last 3-4 years now, and God has given them what they longed for. But I can also praise the Lord for that, as I thank all of you who were able to pray with me in the month of September and half of October.

My experience with different places I went to is that God's amazing work is in every culture and in every part of the globe. From the Majestic Mountain Loop of Visalia to Mountain Sinai in Egypt, God has been so faithful indeed.

In Visalia, the purpose was to meet God's people and share what God is doing here in Square Ministries Africa. Thank you so much, members of Abounding Grace Church, for the hospitality and the amazing time we had together by sharing the word God. I can just say come to Africa and see also what God is doing among his people.

Not only that, but I was also able to see with my own eyes the biggest tree spaces, the Sequoia trees. What about being on top of Moro Rock! From agro-farming to the prayer home cells, my time was just amazing.

From this, I connected with my colleagues from all corners of the world in Egypt for the Anglican Leadership Institute. My question was, what can I learn from Moses, who led God's people through the wilderness? Being in that place for the first time, I was able to connect the historical narrative of Exodus to the reality of the terrain. What amazing things about climbing Mount Sinai! Sometimes we do not understand why Moses smashed the first tablet of commandment after finding his people worshiping the golden calf Aaron has made!. After six hours of climbing up and down, I really realized that, as a human being, Moses had so many thoughts that he couldn't stand for. Thank God for the second chance of getting the two tablets of commandments that we have today.

Egypt is a country of old civilization. Those who are able to visit will see a lot, like the Red Sea, the pyramids, and the pharaoh's tombs. What about the cave church in the rocky mountain with an extraordinary miracle on how a theater has been formed now able to seat over 20,000 people!!! <https://www.egypttoursportal.com/en-za/blog/egypt-attractions/cairo-attractions/cave-church/>

In all, God has been so good to me and to my family. Thank you for your prayers. I will keep praying for you too; just share with me what you are going through, and I shall lift you in God's hands.

Tomorrow is November. Those who are waiting to vote this month know that our prayers are with you. May God's will be done upon you as you choose your country's next leader.

Do you know anything about Giving Tuesday? If you have some hints, please share them with me to raise some funds to buy at least 10 sewing machines for the needy girls finishing their vocational training school. In fact, we have a marching grant of US$400 from Global Horizon Inc. Be number one to donate, and we shall recognize your donation.

Just go to www.squareministriesafrica.org - click "How You Can help" - then "Donate" and fill in the form. We shall recognize your donation instantly.

For those who are celebrating your birthday tomorrow November 1, Happy birthday!! It is All Saints' Day.

Love and prayers,
