

February 2025

Shalom greetings from Kenya,

We appreciate the grace of God this far as Kenya family together with the Youngsters for Christ team. God's grace has been sufficient, and God's love has been shown through our different programs and activities. Where through faith salvation has been seen and witnessed.

Just a summary report of 2024, highlights of the year. Through your love and prayers, we reached people from various villages and tribes. Our main mission was to bring people to Christ's knowledge and make disciples. Youngsters for Christ team through the passion and zeal of the work of the Great Commission we go further to equip the new believers through training and mentorships to have a spiritual multiplication in the areas where they are coming from. This we do as we continue to see how God will position us for 2025 and the next 5 years.

2024 HIGHLIGHTS:

- 38,445 people heard the Gospel of Jesus Christ in different villages and communities.
- 4,200 accepted and believed in the Gospel of Jesus Christ. We encouraged them to join local Bible teaching fellowships (our home cell groups).

- 56 new home cell groups were established in different villages. Where each had two leaders representing.
- 3 local village churches were planted with a request of 1 where the pastor, Pastor Nyakundi requested support to put up a structure to use as a church building and a small school for the village as they meet under a tree. (If you feel you need more information about the need of the village church structure, please email back for more information)
- Over 980 children have continued to gain an understanding of God's Word through our feeding program.
- 1,300 young women from different villages have continued to be part of Youngsters for Christ's great ambassadors by reaching their peers through sanitary towels and encouraging them to live positively.

Kenya mission, Youngsters for Christ, we plead with you to consider continuing to be part of what God is doing here in Kenya. Kindly, join us as we bring hope and a smile to a broken and hurt life. Your gift or donation goes a long way to bring hope and joy to the hearts of many.
