

ANGLICAN DIOCESE OF MUKONO

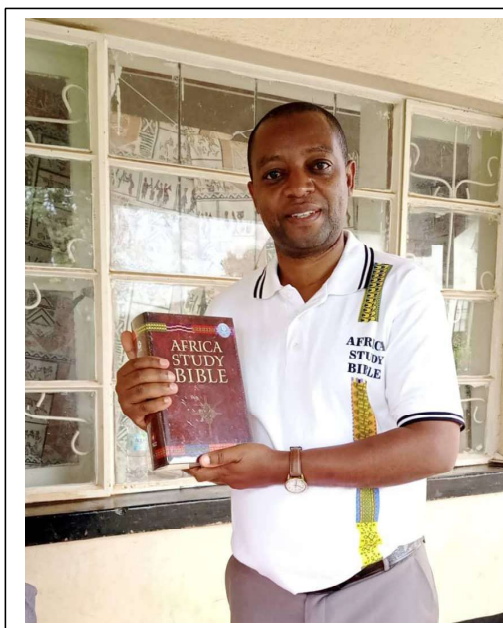

POWER OF THE WORD

LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

Two lady pastors receiving Bibles in Uganda

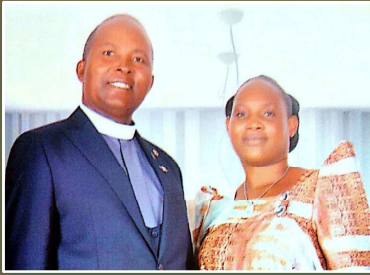

Rev. Dr. Emmanuel Mukeshimana One of the contributors of Africa Study Bible displaying it before the congregation in Bukedi Anglican Church of Uganda

Prayer Team...

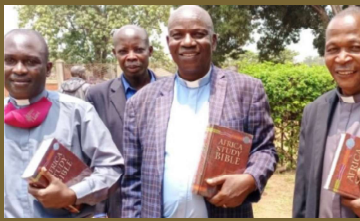

Thank you! Your prayers are essential, needed and greatly appreciated. Without prayer, the enemy wins in more ways than we care to imagine and our efforts will fail to bear fruit. The fruit we seek is

To equip the saints for the work of ministry, for the building up of the body of Christ

Ephesians 4:12 ¹

Rt. Rev. Enos Kitto Kagodo and his wife Catherine Namuddu

Last year Bibles were given to pastors. This year, their spouses and others who lead will receive a Bible.

Please pray a blessing for each Bible. May they be as loved and read as this one.

The conferences

In Uganda, as in many African nations, the Anglican Church has experienced rapid growth. Revival is happening. Hallelujah! And, as scripture says, the harvest is ripe and workers are few. In this case the workers are many but still not enough to teach and disciple all who are eager to learn. Plus, Bibles are often unaffordable.

A one day conference will repeat in five days for geographically dispersed churches in the diocese. The teaching team will be mostly Ugandan at the invitation of Bishop Kagodo’s wife, Catherine Namuddu.

Square Ministries has been training pastors in various churches whereby they were gifted Bibles at subsidised price in order to own it.

This year, the gift is extended to others who lead and teach: more than 400 pastors’ wives, lay-leaders and clergy.

Pray for:

- The participants. Please pray each will feel a strong call to attend and that the Lord will so arrange their lives (child care, encouragement, travel expenses, ...) so they can attend.

The “Team”

“Who’s your team?”

“My team?”

“Yeah the group going with you?”

“Uh, —the Lord, Paige, and me.”

Seems it is not the norm to go without a team. As one who is a speaker and not a missionary, I saw this invitation as the convergence of Revival, the Church, Christian Leaders and Bibles—all of which are dear to my heart. The team, turns out, is mostly Ugandan and...

As we near the time of the conference, the Lord has arranged for a mighty group of forerunners. His choice of a team. A group from St. Phillips in downtown Charleston is being headed up by Jayne and Tom Gurley who lived and taught in Uganda and are prayer warriors. They visit and will pray the land before we arrive. Also, going with overlapping dates are Jenny Noyes, Executive Director of New Wineskins and her assistant Director, Shelly Sorem. Arranging such a “team” is not humanly possible but by miracle our travels converge on the same spot on God’s green earth.

Rev. Dr. Emmanuel Mukeshimana and his wife, Emily

Planning

The idea came through Emmanuel Mukeshimana, who is CEO of Square Ministries Africa and an Anglican Leadership Institute Fellow. From the onset the idea was met with great welcome by Bishop Kagodo and his wife, Catherine as well as Leaders of the Mothers Union. All of whom are involved in planning the conference days.

Linda, photo below, play a big role in prayers and funding

Please pray for the planning team:

- Emmanuel and his wife at the center of the planning.
- The Bishop's wife, Catherine as she invites and plans for the conference.
- The teaching team members from Uganda, Kenya and the USA.

Please pray for:

- All of the speakers
- The hand out materials
- Purchase of the Bibles

Teaching

• Invite the Holy Spirit to be in our midst and to do a great work in the hearts, lives and ministries of each leader in the room.

A personal note...

This year a shocking number of clergy and ministry leaders, who don't know each other, have said to me, "You'll go out with your boots on." What an honor! By Linda, on the left!

Please pray for a Great Awakening.

And, may our almighty and glorious God bless you immensely as you pray. May He show you His glory in a new and miraculous way.

For prayer and support go to "https://globalhz.org/square-ministries-africa/"