

The Gospel of God

Romans 1.3

4/28/2026

The book of Romans has opened my heart in a new way to receive the Gospel of God, read it, and apply it in all areas of my life. I thank God for this letter – the very Word of God. As much as I read this letter, it is my observation that our churches need to return to the Gospel. It is so with our children. Our children need the gospel not just as a means to receive salvation, but also as a system of thought and belief. The Gospel must be applied in education, it must be applied in daily work, in our key relationships, in politics, and in the market.

With this in mind, we conducted a one-day Gospel conference for the children in New Light Home. 22, including staff members, took part in it. We enjoyed breakfast, snacks, lunch, and dinner as well. My wife led a session on “I am a beautiful artwork of God’ based on Eph 2.8-10, and I led a session on what the Gospel is with some drawings from the book of Center Church by Tim Keller. PS Prem Kumar Bhattarai gave his testimony of how he left his school by condemning education as a secular thing (coming from Satan), but later, with the true preaching and teaching of the Gospel in a seminar by Gospel people, he continued his schooling and is now doing well in the education sector.

Buddha, Rebecca, along with the other children, enjoyed the time together with God and with each other. Every good gift comes from God, and it belongs to God as His creatures. We thank you for your Gospel generosity. May God bless all of you who shared this vision by giving.
