Dear partner,

The past few days have been a blur of getting caught up in the now and then. Thank you all for praying with and for me.

Thank you for praying for my trip back home. I am now back in the Philippines. God has provided for and sustained me during my trip. It wasn't easy but the Lord was there the entire time.

I recently came from a short retreat God has allowed me to enjoy through the people He gave me. It was a fulfilling time to rest, reflect, and refresh in God's word and truth. The sunrise I've seen during the retreat reminded me of how there is always hope that comes with the morning after the dark night. Though it was short, it was meaningful, hopeful, and refreshing.

Thank you also for praying for Ravi and his surgery earlier this month. I am grateful to have spent a few days with my nephew, who, after his surgery, has started to get back on his feet and back to school. He still has his follow-up checks with his doctors but his wound has been healing well. Please continue praying for his health.

I also thank God that the Ladies' Fellowship has continued meeting under the leadership of Sichean. They are growing continually and I'm honestly proud of the woman Sichean has become. I truly thank the Lord for her life. Please keep praying for these ladies to really become women that will truly ripple Godly change wherever God has planted them.

I pray that you will continue praying for Cambodia, for the Cambodian church, and every Cambodian Christian. Pray that they will continue to grow in their spiritual lives that they become shining lights in the Buddhist nation.

Pray also for me for where the Lord will lead me next. I am still unsure of what this new season will bring but both my mind and heart are well-rested in the Lord's hands. Pray that whatever and wherever that is, I will be prepared.

I am truly grateful and honored to be part of your lives, even just for 5 years. You have made an impact in my life and the lives of each Cambodian I ministered to. There's too much left to be said, but this is where I will end. As the words of apostle Paul in Philippians, with my whole heart "I thank God in all my remembrance of you."

Cambodia will always be a great part of me, and I hope it is the same for you. My prayer is that, as the Lord has given me, He will do the same for you:

"The Lord bless you and keep you; the Lord make his face shine on you and be gracious to you; the Lord turn his face toward you and give you peace." (Numbers 6:24-26, ESV)

This has been Flindy, your missionary to Cambodia, signing off.

In His service,
