Update from the Botchways

September 2026

Dear Family and Friends,

Thank you for your continuous support for the ministry of Enrich Leadership Ministry. These past couple of months have been a great opportunity to minister to a lot of leaders through our conferences.

Here is a brief Summary of our Enrich Leadership Conference for Pastors and Church Leaders of Assemblies of God Church, which was held on Saturday, 25th July 2026, at the Anyinam Assemblies of God Church in the Eastern Region of Ghana.

The conference commenced at 9:00 a.m. and brought together a total of 127 pastors and church leaders. The purpose of the conference was to enrich and equip church leaders spiritually and practically for effective ministry, evangelism, leadership, discipleship, and the advancement of the Kingdom of God. The programme featured three major presentations, prayers, spiritual ministrations, and fellowship among pastors and church leaders. There was also a notable manifestation of the power of God, which greatly blessed and encouraged the participants. Participants were also provided with refreshments during the conference.

The conference was officially opened with an introduction by Rev. Yaw Obeng, the Resident Minister of Anyinam Assemblies of God Church. Rev. Yaw Obeng welcomed all pastors and church leaders to the conference and expressed appreciation to them for making time to participate in the programme. He highlighted the importance of leadership development and spiritual enrichment in the ministry. He encouraged participants to actively engage with the presentations and allow the Holy Spirit to minister to them throughout the conference. His introduction set the tone for a fruitful and spiritually enriching conference.

The first presentation was delivered by Rev. Albert Botchway on the topic, “It’s Harvest Time.” The presentation focused on the urgent responsibility of the Church to reach the lost and bring people into the Kingdom of God. Using Matthew 9:35–38, the Rev. Botchway emphasised the compassion of Jesus and the global vision of Christ for evangelization. He said that Jesus saw the people as being scattered and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. This was presented as a challenge to pastors and church leaders to develop a genuine burden for souls and to recognize the spiritual needs of people within their communities. He also referred to Matthew 24:14, which highlights the preaching of the gospel to all nations before the end comes. Participants were encouraged to understand that evangelism is not optional but an essential responsibility of every believer and, particularly, every church leader. Rev. Botchway stressed the command of Jesus for His followers to go, make disciples of all nations, baptise them, and teach them to observe His commandments. He encouraged the participants to recognize that the Church is living in a season of spiritual harvest, develop a genuine burden for lost souls, make evangelism a priority in their churches, mobilise members for effective outreach, follow the Great Commission by making disciples, take advantage of opportunities to preach the gospel and understand that the harvest requires labourers who are committed to God's work.

The presentation was followed by a powerful prayer session led by Rev. Jonas Yeboah. The second presentation was delivered by Rev. Jonas Yeboah on the topic, “Spiritual Leader and Evangelism.” He emphasised the important relationship between effective spiritual leadership and evangelism. Pastors and church leaders were reminded that their personal spiritual lives and leadership example significantly influence the growth and evangelistic effectiveness of their churches. From Ecclesiastes 10:16, participants were encouraged to appreciate the importance of maturity, responsibility, and proper leadership. Leaders were challenged to demonstrate wisdom and spiritual discipline in their conduct. He also drew attention to 2 Corinthians 6:3, encouraging leaders to live in such a way that their ministry does not become a stumbling block to others. The life and conduct of a spiritual leader should support and strengthen the message being preached. In 2 Timothy 4:5, Paul's charge to Timothy to remain watchful, endure hardship, do the work of an evangelist, and fulfil his ministry was emphasised. He encouraged the participants to maintain a strong relationship with God, lead by example, and remain faithful even in difficult circumstances.

The third and final presentation was delivered by Aps. Dr Emmanuel Ofosu-Amoah on the topic, “Pre-Season of Harvest Time.” The presentation focused on the preparation that must take place before a great spiritual harvest can be experienced. He encouraged pastors and church leaders to prepare themselves, their churches, and their members for the harvest God desires to bring into the Church. Participants were reminded that harvest does not happen without preparation. Leaders must therefore prepare spiritually, strategically, and organizationally to receive, disciple, nurture, and retain those who will come to Christ. He emphasized the need for pastors and church leaders to be fervent in prayer to prepare spiritually for the coming harvest, train and equip church members for evangelism, develop effective discipleship systems, create an atmosphere where new converts can grow, be ready to receive and nurture the harvest, and depend on the Holy Spirit for effective ministry.

The presentation was followed by a powerful prayer session led by Aps. Dr Emmanuel OfosuAmoah. There was a significant manifestation of the power of God during the conference, and participants were spiritually refreshed, encouraged, and challenged to return to their various churches with renewed commitment to the work of ministry.

Finally:

The conference came to a close at 2:00 p.m. The programme ended on a positive and spiritually uplifting note, with participants encouraged to return to their various churches and put into practice the lessons and spiritual principles received during the conference. The conference provided pastors and church leaders with opportunities to be spiritually enriched, encouraged, equipped, and challenged to take their evangelistic responsibilities seriously.

OUR NEEDS

Our greatest need for this year is to get a new vehicle. We are looking for a seven- or more-seater vehicle because of the increase in the number of people who travel with us. We are thankful to the Lord for graciously giving us our Ford Escape. We have been using it for the last four years. The bad road is taking a toll on the vehicle, with the constant repairs to keep it on the road. We have to pray through every trip we make. At our last Conference, we had to borrow a vehicle to make the journey.

Appeal for funds!

The purpose of the appeal is to raise funds for the purchase of a new, durable, and roadworthy vehicle that will ensure safe travel for our staff and team; support our outreach and ministry activities; reduce frequent repair and maintenance costs; improve operational efficiency; and enable us to reach more towns and communities across Ghana.

Estimated Cost:

The estimated cost for the purchase, registration, insurance, and initial maintenance of the vehicle is GHC 450,000, approximately $40,000

We are believing God for the first fifty people who will sow a seed of $500.00

The second group of fifty to sow a seed of $200.00

The third group of fifty to sow $100.00, and that will give us a total of $40,000.00
